Scripture quotations are from the King James Version (Authorized Version), standard 1769 text, which is in the public domain in the United States. Rights in the Authorized Version in the United Kingdom are vested in the Crown.

How the puzzles were checked. Every verse was compared letter by letter with five independent public-domain copies of the King James text. Every puzzle was checked by computer: it decodes to the verse exactly, no letter stands for itself, and with the given letters only one reading fits, tested against every word in the King James Bible.

Welcome

This book is for anyone who loves a good puzzle and a good word from Scripture. Each of the 200 puzzles hides one well-loved verse from the King James Bible. Crack the code, and the verse is yours: a few quiet minutes with a pencil, and a word of comfort, hope or strength at the end.

How the book is arranged

The verses are gathered into 7 parts, from Comfort in Hard Times to Christmas: Good Tidings of Great Joy. Inside each part the puzzles start easy and grow harder:

- ★☆☆☆☆ Easy 4 to 7 letters are given
- ★★☆☆☆ Medium 2 to 5 letters are given
- ★★★☆☆ Hard 1 to 3 letters are given
- ★★★★★ Expert no letters are given: just you and the code

Every puzzle has its own page, with large letters, a line above each letter for your answer, a code key to keep track, and room for notes.

If you get stuck

Each puzzle tells you where its hints and its answer are. The hints come in three small steps, so you can take just a little help and still finish the puzzle yourself. The solutions give every verse in full, with its reference.

A word about the King James Version

The verses keep the beloved words of the King James Bible: THEE and THOU, HATH and SHALL, LOVETH and KNOWETH. Far from making the puzzles harder, these words become your best friends, and the next pages show you why.

How to Solve a Cryptogram

A cryptogram is a sentence written in a secret code. Every letter has been swapped for a different letter. Your task is to swap them back.

The rules of the code

- One code letter always stands for the same real letter, all through the puzzle. If Q means E once, it means E everywhere.
- No letter ever stands for itself. A code A is never a real A.
- Spaces, commas, colons and apostrophes are real. They show you where words begin and end.
- Each puzzle has its own code. What you learn in one puzzle does not carry over to the next.

What is on each page

- Given letters Some puzzles start with a few real letters already filled in, in bold, everywhere they appear. They are also in the code key.
- The lines Write each real letter on the line above its code letter.
- Code key The row Code lists every code letter. Used tells you how often it appears in this puzzle, so you do not have to count. In the row Real, write the real letter as soon as you know it.
- Notes Room to try out words before you write them in.

Use a pencil with a good eraser. Guessing is allowed; that is half the fun.

A Puzzle Solved Step by Step

Psalms 23:1

Here is a puzzle with no letters given. Watch how it opens up, one step at a time. The shaded spaces show the letters found in each step.

Step 1. A code letter standing alone is almost always I or A (once in a while O). Here C stands alone at the start of a new thought, right after the semicolon, so I is the best guess. Try C = I everywhere.

I
S N F U V Z X C B Y D B N F K N F Z X;
I
C B N R U U W V S M R W S.

Step 2. The most common three-letter word is THE. The first word, SNF, has three different letters, so try S = T, N = H and F = E. Notice H and E twice inside the long word BNFKNFZX.

T H E
S N F U V Z X I Y D B H E K H E Z X;
I H T T
C B N R U U W V S M R W S.

Step 3. Look at C BNRUU: I, then a five-letter word ending in a double letter. With H in second place, SHALL fits: B = S, R = A, U = L. (L L is the most common double letter in these verses.)

T H E L _ _ _ I S _ _ S H E H E _ _
S N F U V Z X C B Y D B N F K N F Z X;
I S H A L L _ _ T _ A _ T
C B N R U U W V S M R W S.

Step 4. After THE comes UVZX, and its first letter is already L. Think of the most famous four-letter word starting with L in the Bible: LORD. So V = O, Z = R, X = D.

T H E L O R D I S _ _ S H E H E R D
S N F U V Z X C B Y D B N F K N F Z X;
I S H A L L _ O T _ A _ T
C B N R U U W V S M R W S.

Step 5. Only a few letters are left. YD is a two-letter word: MY. The long word is SHEPHERD, and the last words read NOT WANT. Check every letter once more. Done!

T H E L O R D I S M Y S H E P H E R D
S N F U V Z X C B Y D B N F K N F Z X;
I S H A L L N O T W A N T
C B N R U U W V S M R W S.

The verse: The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. (Psalm 23:1)

The method in short

1. Write in the given letters everywhere they appear.
2. A code letter standing alone is I, A or O.
3. Look at the Used row: the most used code letter is often E, then T or H.
4. A three-letter code word that appears more than once is often THE or AND.
5. After an apostrophe comes S: LORD'S, FATHER'S.
6. Look for the old friends: UNTO, LORD, THEE, THOU, SHALL, HATH, and words ending in -ETH.
7. Fill in every new letter everywhere, then look for words that are almost finished.
8. Stuck? Take Hint 1, then Hint 2, then Hint 3. Every step leaves the rest to you.

Tips for King James Verses

What the counting tells us

We counted every letter and every word of the King James Bible (all 31,102 verses). Here is what helps most when you solve.

The most common letters

E	T	H	A	O	N	I	S	R	D
13%	10%	9%	9%	8%	7%	6%	6%	5%	5%

E is by far the most common letter: about one letter in eight. Then come T and H, because THE, THAT, THEY, THOU and UNTO are everywhere. The code letter that appears most often in a puzzle (see the Used row of the code key) is very often E, T or H.

Short words

1 letter I · A · O (O as in “O LORD”)

2 letters OF · TO · IN · HE · BE · IS · IT · MY · ME · YE

3 letters THE · AND · FOR · HIS · HIM · NOT · ALL · THY · WAS · GOD

4 letters THAT · UNTO · LORD · THEY · THEM · WITH · THOU · SAID
· HAVE · WILL

The most common words in this book

In these 200 verses the words you will meet most often are THE, AND, OF, IN, IS, FOR, I, LORD, SHALL, MY, THAT, GOD, BE, HE, NOT, WILL. Keep this list handy.

Letter patterns to look for

THAT, HATH four letters, the first and last the same
THEE, WILL four letters ending in a double letter
SHALL five letters ending in a double letter
UNTO, LORD four different letters; UNTO often comes right before THEE, ME or HIM

Old words you will meet often

THEE · THOU · THY · THINE · YE · UNTO · HATH · SHALL · SAITH. If a three-letter code word sits where “your” would go, try THY; if a four-letter word starts like THE, try THEE, THEM, THEY or THEN.

Word endings

Many King James verbs end in -ETH (LOVETH, MAKETH, GIVETH) or -EST (KNOWEST). A long code word that ends in the same three code letters as another one may share that ending. An ending in -ED or -ING is just as common as in modern English.

Double letters and apostrophes

The most common double letters are LL, EE, SS, OO, FF, TT. A double letter at the end of a short word is almost always LL (ALL, SHALL, WILL). A code word ending with an apostrophe and one letter, like XYZW'Q, ends in 'S: LORD'S, FATHER'S.

PART I

Comfort in Hard Times

Hard days come to everyone sooner or later. The verses in this part were chosen for those days, the times of grief, worry, illness or loss. Here you will meet the shepherd of Psalm 23 and the refuge of Psalm 46. Take each puzzle at your own pace, and let the words keep you company.

PART 2

Peace for an Anxious Heart

Worry has a way of filling the mind, especially late at night. This part gathers verses about calm trust, honest prayer and restful sleep. Among them are the gentle teaching of Matthew 6 and the old blessing of Numbers 6. Settle into a comfortable chair, take a slow breath, and let each verse appear one letter at a time.

PART 3

Hope That Does Not Fade

Hope in the Bible is more than wishing things were different. The verses in this part look ahead with steady confidence: to mercy that does not run out, to the empty tomb in Matthew 28, and to life with God that death cannot end. Some, like Lamentations 3, come from a place of deep sorrow, and their hope shines all the brighter for it.

PART 4

Strength & Courage

Courage is not the same as having no fear. Many verses in this part were first spoken to people facing something hard, such as Joshua at the start of a great task, or the weary listeners of Isaiah 40. Again and again they point to a strength that comes from God rather than from ourselves. They are worth reading twice.

PART 7

Christmas: Good Tidings of Great Joy

Here the book turns to Christmas, a part to enjoy in that season or any time of year. These verses gather the whole story, from the promises of the prophets to the angels, the shepherds, the manger and the wise men who followed the star. The opening of John 1 is here too. May they bring you a little of that great joy.

Hints

Three gentle steps for every puzzle

Every puzzle has three hints, each in its own section so you never see more than you want. Take one hint, go back to the puzzle, and enjoy the rest of it yourself.

How to read a letter hint: Y = E means that the code letter Y stands for the real letter E. Write E on the line above every Y in the puzzle, and in the Real box under Y in the code key.

Hint 1 The book of the Bible, and one more letter.

Hint 2 Two more letters.

Hint 3 The longest word, and the full reference, so you can look the verse up in your own Bible.

Solutions

Every verse, word for word from the King James Version

1. John 10:11

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

Reflect: A hired hand runs when danger comes, but this shepherd stays close and knows his own.

2. Matthew 11:28

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Reflect: What weight are you carrying right now that you could bring to him?

3. Psalm 147:3

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Reflect: The One who counts and names the stars also tends the hurts we keep inside.

4. Psalm 3:3

But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

Reflect: Surrounded by voices saying there was no help for him, the psalmist kept talking to the One who listened.

5. Psalm 46:1

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Reflect: Shifting ground and roaring waters fill this psalm, yet God's help is pictured as near, not far.

6. Psalm 73:26

My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

Reflect: The psalmist felt his strength fail, yet he knew God still held him by the hand.

7. Psalm 94:19

In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

Reflect: When thoughts pile up and race, can you name one comfort you have known this week?

8. Psalm 9:9

The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

Reflect: Those who feel pushed aside or unheard are not forgotten; their cry still reaches God.

9. Nahum 1:7

The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

Reflect: Amid stormy words of judgment, the prophet pauses to name a safe place for those who trust.

10. John 14:1

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

Reflect: Jesus offered this comfort to friends facing a hard goodbye; what goodbye or worry weighs on you now?

11. 1 Peter 5:6–7

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Reflect: You are not the only one carrying worries; believers everywhere bring theirs to the same caring God.

12. 2 Corinthians 12:9

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Reflect: Paul asked three times for his thorn to be taken away, and was given grace to bear it instead.

13. Isaiah 41:10

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Reflect: Spoken first to Israel, these words answer fear with presence and help rather than a scolding.

14. Isaiah 43:2 (part)

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee...

Reflect: This promise to Israel does not say deep waters never come, but that God would be with them there.

15. John 16:33

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Reflect: Jesus was honest that trouble would come; his peace is offered right in the middle of it.

16. Psalm 121:7-8

The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

Reflect: Every trip to the store or the doctor, and every return home, can be placed in God's keeping.

17. Psalm 18:2

The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

Reflect: The psalmist reaches for picture after picture; which one speaks most to you?

18. Psalm 23:4

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Reflect: In the darkest valley, the psalm turns from talking about God to talking with him.

19. Psalm 23:6

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Reflect: Where can you trace kindness that has followed you through the years, often without your noticing?

20. Psalm 27:5

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

Reflect: Where is your hiding place with God: a corner by the window, or a familiar prayer?

21. Psalm 30:5

For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Reflect: Tears are not hidden or scolded here; the psalm makes room for them while it looks toward morning.

22. Psalm 91:4

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Reflect: Imagine a bird gathering its young beneath its wings; few pictures of safety are gentler than that.

23. Psalm 62:8

Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

Reflect: What would you tell God about today if you held nothing back?

24. John 14:27

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

Reflect: The world's peace usually depends on circumstances; this peace was meant to hold even when they change.

25. Psalm 121:1-2

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

Reflect: Next time you look up at the sky or the hills, let it remind you who made them.

26. Isaiah 46:4

And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

Reflect: Idols had to be carried by weary animals; this God speaks of carrying his people instead.

27. Psalm 34:18

The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

Reflect: The psalm openly admits that faithful people face many troubles; sorrow does not mean God has stepped away.

28. Revelation 21:4

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Reflect: Some sorrows stay with us for years; this vision of a world made new lets hope reach past them.

29. Psalm 55:22

Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

Reflect: A friend's betrayal is among the hardest burdens, yet even that can be brought to God.

30. Matthew 11:29-30

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Reflect: Most of us have known a harsh teacher or boss; this teacher is patient with the tired.

31. Psalm 40:1-2

I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

Reflect: Waiting can feel endless, yet the psalmist's story moves from the mud to solid ground and then to song.

32. Psalm 91:1-2

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Reflect: Dwelling suggests staying, not just visiting; this shelter is meant to be lived in.

33. 2 Thessalonians 3:16

Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

Reflect: This blessing comes near the close of a letter; you might pray it today for someone you love.

34. Psalm 119:165

Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

Reflect: Like someone finding treasure, the psalmist took joy in God's word; what draws you back to it?

35. Psalm 145:18

The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

Reflect: No fine words are needed to call on God; plain and honest ones will do.

36. Psalm 29:11

The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

Reflect: Power and gentleness meet in this psalm; the God of the storm also gives his people calm.

37. Romans 12:18

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Reflect: Peace with others does not depend on you alone; this verse asks only for your own share.

38. Romans 5:1

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

Reflect: This is peace with God himself, which runs deeper than any calm mood or quiet day.

39. Psalm 51:10

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Reflect: On any day you long for a fresh start, this prayer is yours to borrow.

40. Psalm 4:8

I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

Reflect: The psalmist did not need every problem solved before sleeping; knowing who kept watch was enough.

41. 1 John 5:14

And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

Reflect: Confidence in prayer can mean trusting God to know what is best, even before an answer comes.

42. Isaiah 32:17

And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

Reflect: In this chapter, peace and quietness follow a time of thorns and ruin, like a desert turning green.

43. Matthew 6:33

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Reflect: Before the list of needs fills your mind, pause and offer the day to God first.

44. Matthew 6:34

Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Reflect: Just for today, set down one worry about tomorrow; God will be there tomorrow too.

45. Numbers 6:24-26

The LORD bless thee, and keep thee: The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Reflect: Given to Aaron's family to speak over Israel, this blessing pictures God's face turned toward his people in kindness.

46. Philippians 4:6

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

Reflect: Try naming one worry and one thing you are thankful for, side by side, in a short prayer.

47. Philippians 4:7

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Reflect: Thanksgiving is the way in; a prayer might begin there, before any requests are made.

167. Psalm 139:14

I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

Reflect: Your body may change with the years, but you remain the careful work of a loving Maker.

168. Colossians 3:17

And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Reflect: Could an ordinary task, like washing dishes or writing a card, become an act of thanks?

169. Ephesians 4:32

And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Reflect: Is there someone you could treat more gently this week, remembering the mercy you have received?

170. Psalm 16:11

Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Reflect: This psalm finds its joy in being near God; what helps you sense that nearness?

171. 2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

Reflect: This newness has nothing to do with age; it is something God does, at any stage of life.

172. Psalm 100:1-2

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Reflect: Your voice need not be strong or tuneful; a hymn hummed softly is welcome praise too.

173. 1 John 4:7-8

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

Reflect: Every act of real love, however plain, bears a family likeness to the One it comes from.

174. 1 John 4:18

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

Reflect: Fear of standing before God can be hard to shake, but his love came first and is stronger.

175. Zephaniah 3:17

The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

Reflect: In this promise to Jerusalem, God is not merely patient with his people; he takes delight in them.

176. 1 Corinthians 13:4-5

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

Reflect: Love, as described here, is less a feeling than a way of treating people, one day at a time.

177. Psalm 103:1-2

Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Reflect: The psalm goes on to list God's benefits; what would you write on your own list?

178. Romans 8:39

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reflect: Whatever troubles you most, set it beside the long reach of God's love.

179. Isaiah 60:1

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

Reflect: Notice the order here: the light comes first, and the call to rise follows.

180. John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Reflect: The Christmas story starts long before Bethlehem; this Gospel traces it back to the very beginning.

181. Luke 1:46–47

And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

Reflect: Mary's song followed Elisabeth's warm welcome; joy often grows when it is shared.

182. Matthew 2:10

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

Reflect: The star went ahead of the wise men; where have you felt gently led along your own way?

183. Matthew 2:11 (part)

...and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

Reflect: What simple gift could you bring to Jesus today: a prayer, a song, or a kind word?

184. Titus 2:11

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

Reflect: Grace does more than rescue; it also teaches us, day by day, how to live wisely and rightly.

185. Isaiah 11:1

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

Reflect: New growth from old roots is a picture of hope; where are green shoots appearing around you?

186. Isaiah 40:5

And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

Reflect: May these words, first meant to comfort God's people, bring a measure of comfort to you as well.

187. Isaiah 7:14

Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Reflect: This sign came to a king who refused to ask for one; some gifts arrive unasked.

188. Isaiah 9:6 (part)

...and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Reflect: Which of these names means the most to you at this point in your life?

189. Luke 2:10-11

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Reflect: If Christmas brings sadness as well as joy, remember that this good news is for tender hearts too.

190. Luke 2:7

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Reflect: Born where there was no room, he knows what it is to be overlooked.

191. Matthew 1:21

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Reflect: The child's very name held a promise of mercy; bring him any old regrets you still carry.

192. Matthew 1:23

Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Reflect: At the kitchen table or in your usual chair, pause for a moment and welcome God's nearness.

193. John 1:4-5

In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

Reflect: On a dark evening, even a single lamp can recall the Light these words describe.

194. Luke 1:32

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

Reflect: The one promised such greatness arrived as a helpless baby, a gentle surprise worth pondering.

195. Matthew 2:2

Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

Reflect: Strangers from far away came looking for this child; no one is too far off to seek him.

196. Isaiah 9:2

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Reflect: In a dark season, it may help to know this light first dawned on people who knew deep shadow.

197. John 1:14

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Reflect: He came to live among people like us, so he is no stranger to the life you know.

198. Luke 2:13-14

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Reflect: Heaven's praise broke into an ordinary night for shepherds; where might wonder find you today?

199. Galatians 4:4-5

But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

Reflect: What does it mean to you to belong in God's family as a child rather than a servant?

200. Luke 1:30-31

And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.
